RATINGS/CRITERIA: Candidates were evaluated on their acceptance of climate change as a real, human-caused problem, their willingness to engage in dialogue about climate action, their voting record on climate-related legislation (if available), their willingness to engage with POW AF, the extent to which climate is a priority in their campaign, leadership displayed on climate issues, and whether or not they have championed climate legislation. We have rated candidates using ski area difficulty levels, with climate champions earning a “double black diamond” (expert terrain in most ski areas) and candidates who deny human-caused climate change or are unwilling to engage in dialogue about climate action earning “out of bounds.”

CANDIDATES FOR THE US SENATE

JACKY ROSEN (D): Double Black Diamond

Throughout her time in the Senate, Senator Rosen has championed climate legislation. She introduces policy initiatives focusing on climate and clean energy solutions and votes in favor of meaningful climate legislation. Clean energy and innovation are a priority of Rosen’s legislative work and her re-election campaign.

SAM BROWN (R): Out of Bounds

Mr. Brown seeks to eliminate environmental federal agencies that implement climate solutions, such as the EPA, Department of Transportation, and Department of Energy. He does not have a clearly defined domestic energy policy.

CANDIDATES FOR THE US HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

District 1:

DINA TITUS (D): Black Diamond

Rep. Titus acknowledges the threat of climate change and emphasizes the importance of a science-based approach to climate legislation. As a member of Congress, she votes consistently in favor of impactful climate solutions and uses her platform to advocate for climate action.

MARK ROBERTSON (R): Out of Bounds

Mr. Robertson accepts that climate change is real but not caused by humans. He continues to oppose climate solutions.

District 2:

LYNN CHAPMAN (L)

There is no public information on Chapman's policy positions.

MARK AMODEI (R): Blue Square

As a member of Congress, Rep. Amodei's participation in the Conservative Climate Caucus suggests an interest in climate solutions. He occasionally votes in favor of climate legislation and has made emissions reduction a campaign priority.

GREG KIDD: Blue Square

Mr. Kidd advocates for global energy transition and geothermal power in Nevada. He advocates for increased lithium production and recycling in Nevada.

**Note: there is not a Democrat running in this district*

District 3:*◆ SUSIE LEE (D): Black Diamond

Rep. Lee affirms the reality of climate change and the urgent need for action. As a member of Congress, she votes consistently in favor of meaningful climate legislation and uses her platform to advocate for climate action.

⊗ DREW JOHNSON (R): Out of Bounds

Mr. Johnson does not acknowledge the issue of climate change and criticizes climate solutions. He actively opposes meaningful climate solutions and supports policies with harmful climate implications, including increasing oil and gas leasing on public lands.

District 4:*◆ STEVEN HORSFORD (D): Black Diamond

Rep. Horsford believes in climate change and uses his platform to call for action on climate issues. As a member of Congress, he prioritizes climate action, consistently voting in favor of meaningful climate solutions.

⊗ JOHN LEE (R): Out of Bounds

Mr. Lee does not acknowledge the existence of climate change and has no developed stance on domestic energy or climate policy.
